NEW PHASE IN HOWARD CREEK UPGRADE

Encouraging progress on the Tamborine-Oxenford Road Howard Creek causeway has become clearer to Mountain commuters, with works on track to complete in late 2022. If the likely return of La Niña eventuates this spring, the works should quickly prove their value. More photos (captured last weekend by Gerard Ellen) and story on page 19.

BUSHRATS PRESENTATION DAY A TRUE FAMILY AFFAIR

The Tamborine Mountain Bushrats celebrated their return to competition in 2022 with a presentation day last Sunday at the Showgrounds. The sausage sizzle and jumping castle were highlights before the presentations to all club players and coaches. It was great to see the representation of juniors – boys and girls – often in teams that struggled to make up the numbers, but never lacking in Bushrat spirit. MC and club president Alick Kilsby received the inaugural Mick Shutte Club Person of The Year Award from Michael Shutte Jr (photo: 2nd row – middle). The senior team celebrated their minor premiership (top photo), while Anton Laurich presented the Matt Laurich Award (photo second row, right) to the one player from each junior team who exhibited the most Bushrat spirit throughout the season – a great way to remember Matt, a former junior Bushrat who epitomised the club spirit.

TIGERS ROAR TO SURPASS PREVIOUS ACHIEVEMENTS

Congratulations to the Tamborine Mountain Netball Club's Under 13 team, the Tamborine Tigers, who came fourth in 1. division of the HDNA (district) Saturday netball competition.

To understand the scope of this achievement, one needs to look into the past of this amazing team. Starting out in 2019, the Tigers had to play a year up from their age group because they didn't have enough players born in 2009 to form a team. That first year in third division was marked by mastering basic skills on which the team built the following year, still in third division and a year up.

In 2021, under the supervision of their fabulous new coach, Cheryl, and the addition of a few new players, the team finally had enough players to compete in their age group. When the girls – and boy :- ) – learned that they would be playing second division that year, not all of them were sure that they were good enough. But Cheryl was fantastic in building up their skills and confidence, and the Tigers kept improving throughout the season. In September 2021, The Tamborine Tigers won second division, defeating the top team which hadn't lost a single game during the whole competition! (Apart from the final of course. :- ) )

After winning 2. division in 2021, the Tamborine Tigers started in first division in February 2022. It was amazing to see these dedicated players improve from week to week. Cheryl invested a lot of time and planning into their two-weekly training sessions. Although the team lost a few games, this did not hamper their enthusiasm and positive outlook – they were sure they could finish in the top four and make it into the finals. And using their amazing potential, they did! On the last Saturday in August, the Tigers played Palm Beach Pumas in their first knock-out game – and although they gave their very best and played amazing netball, the Tigers lost by a single point :- )

Well done Charlotte, Phoebe, Annabelle, Grace, Lucas, Sophia, Reagan and Nina – and not to forget Cheryl, without whom this success wouldn't have been possible. There is no reason to feel sad, guys – be proud of your achievements, and there is always next year to look forward to.

OPEN DAY FUN!

A great morning out at the Tamborine Mountain Community Kindy Open Day!

The TMC Kindy again threw its doors open to the wider community on Sunday 21st August and welcomed families from around the Mountain to enjoy their beautiful grounds and meet all the teachers.

The Kindy was set up just as it would be for a usual day of learning, so all kids who visited got a taste of what it would be like to spend a day at our kindy, playing and learning in a beautiful, natural mountain setting.

The children had the best time playing in the fort, the creek and sandpit and utilising all the indoor and outdoor learning stations and nature activities.

Our present and former kindy pupils welcomed the families and our special visitors Councillor Derek Swanborough and his wife Sue, with their original Acknowledgement to Country – “My Mountain Home”

Featuring a delicious fundraising bake stall made by the kindy families, and sausage sizzle donated by Woolworths Oxenford, a puppet show by Dr Annette Harden and the fantastic face painting by Fran Mahony, a fun morning was had by all.

The Kindy would like to thank all the families and teachers who worked so hard to make the Open Day a fun and fabulous success! We would also like to thank Shirley Hans for taking such beautiful photos.

The next free Community Kindy Playgroup is on this Friday 2 September. If you have a child ready for Kindy, please contact staff@tmckindy.org.au to register them on the waiting list.

Come to our FREE Friday playgroup session!

LIBRARY HIGH JINKS TO CONCLUDE BOOK WEEK SESSIONS

Tamborine Library staff were snapped last week at the conclusion of a series of Book Week sessions with primary and kindy children. Raylene Jensen, Catherine Kahler and Miranda Collins were moonlighting as literary figures Wally, of Where's Wally fame, Mary Poppins, and Alice in Wonderland. Local Meg Parker was happy to hang out with some of her childhood storybook characters. A gorgeous group, 'practically perfect in every way', as Ms Poppins would have said.

SPRINGTIME ...

Hello to everyone on the Mountain, and what a busy time it has been.

With Spring just around the corner, I expect to see a flurry of utes and trailers heading to the dump with volumes of green waste and the like. Please take care and secure your load: flying debris can cause significant damage or harm to others.

Unfortunately, 5 traffic crashes, 2 drink drivers and a drug affected driver in the past 28 days, which continues to infect the Mountain. With Road Safety Week having been upon us, I want to reinforce that those crashes, and driving affected, take an enormous toll on the Community.

Crime does not escape us, with some fraud and break-ins occurring. We have had a sporadic number of events where "soda bulb bombs" have been used on people's mailboxes and bins. This is incredibly dangerous – think missing fingers and the like. I'd ask parents who have these types of canisters at their home ensure they aren't being used inappropriately.

If you are looking for more information about Road Safety or Security around your home or business, visit the myriad resources available on the internet, with the Qld Police Service website being a good source of information.

We will be out and about, and sometimes give out tickets and/or send people to Court. Remember getting a ticket is voluntary, it's all based on your actions, so please obey the rules, and consider pledging to improve just one part of your driving to be safer on the road – think patience.

As always, report matters that might seem suspicious, your information is just a phone call away and may help save someone's life or protect their property, you never know.

DEREK SWANBOROUGH
DIVISION 1

A VERY SAD DAY FOR TAMBORINE MOUNTAIN

Council caves in again and won't oppose 11 large two-storey disability cabins in a residential area at 1-11 Eagles Retreat Place.

Council at its last Ordinary meeting gave Council Officers the power to instruct its solicitors to either continue to oppose the developer application for 11 cabins or to agree to an approval with conditions. It was a fait accompli, as I was certain that Council fully intended to walk away from this Court case. As it turned out, that's exactly what happened. I voted against the motion, but it was lost 6 votes to one.

A few days later, Councillors were advised that our solicitors had advised the Court it would not pursue the matter further.

This was the case where the developer applied to build a house, got it approved, then proceeded to apply to Council for approval for a tennis court and gazebo for the dwelling as a "Minor Change", got it approved, and with haste, the developer sent in the bulldozers to clear the vegetation. Residents reported frightened koalas squealing from the falling old-growth trees. They had no wildlife spotters present. Just a day or two after this, a new development application was received by Council for 12 disability cabins, and you guessed it, cabins were shown in the very area where the tennis court and gazebo was approved, and the vegetation cleared.

Even a Gold Coast Developer told me: "Derek, they would never have gotten away with this if we were in the Gold Coast City Council".

Well, I reported this matter to you on 2nd July 2020 in the Scenic News newspaper and Tamborine Times, and told you how the developer had gamed the process, and that it was likely their original intention to apply for a cabin development and clear enormous amounts of vegetation from this steep escarpment site.

COMPLAINT MADE TO THE OIA

You can guess the next step. I received in the mail a letter from the Office of Independent Assessor (OIA) in September 2020, saying a complaint had been received that I misled the public because I said an application and clearing had occurred for a unit development (at that point, we knew the Developer's real intentions) but the complainant argued no, it was for a Tennis Court.

The complaint therefore was as follows:

- My Conduct in saying it was for a Unit development and not a Tennis Court and Gazebo was a breach of the trust placed in me as a Councillor, either knowingly or recklessly, and that his conduct was not consistent with Local Government Principle in section 4 (2) (e) "Ethical and Legal behaviour of Councillors ..."
- Council went on to list the sequence of approvals to try and justify its approvals

The OIA advised me that this was likely misconduct and I had to respond, which I did.

I denied the allegations and provided reasons.

The OIA didn't accept them, and summoned me to their Office for a certain day and time saying I MUST ATTEND or be subject to a HEFTY FINE OF AROUND $10,000.

I ATTENDED ON 19TH July 2021 and was grilled for an hour. We both recorded the Interview.

Some months later, I received a notification from The OIA that they would refer me to the Conduct Tribunal, and that I had the opportunity to provide a further statement in the interests of natural justice.

I provided that statement, and it was also linked to four other complaints to the Tribunal from the Council CEO or Executive about my Councillor Comments column over the last two years. It took me almost a full week to research and prepare my defence.

On 29th June 2022 (nearly 2 years later), I received notification from the OIA that they were dismissing the complaint as it was an unjustifiable use of resources to continue, and Council's case had not met the legal thresholds of a "breach of trust".

THINKING OF BECOMING A COUNCILLOR?

Well, you may have an easier time if there are reforms to the OIA before 2024. Let's hope a new CEO at Scenic Rim Council takes charge and reverses a toxic culture that has used the OIA for political purposes. It doesn't happen in other Councils like this when common sense prevails. One thing that won't change will be the need for any new Tamborine Councillor to boldly stand up for the Mountain's interests if we don't succeed in going to the GCCC. Time to start thinking about March 2024.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT WITH THE EAGLES RETREAT PLACE COURT CASE?

This matter has now gone on for 13 months and only Jeanette Lockey and Amanda Hay from the Progress Association will attend court, give evidence, cross-examine witnesses and present the Mountain's case to protect it from this inappropriate development in a Residential Area. They will argue against the developer, based on issues of amenity and compliance with the Council's Strategic Framework in its planning scheme. It's a David and Goliath fight, and we must take our hats off to them, as they have now devoted 12 months of their own time and costs in the Court process, when our Council has abandoned the fight believing they cannot win. As Judge Williamson said to the respondents in a hearing recently, you only have to prove one point and the case could be won. Let's hope they are successful and common sense prevails.

COUNCIL HAS ZERO-TOLERANCE FOR ABUSE OF COUNCIL STAFF

Council workers subjected to abusive behaviour from community members

In recent weeks, Scenic Rim Regional Council has recorded multiple instances of serious abuse directed towards Council employees and contractors.

Council has zero-tolerance for abuse of any kind towards any employee or contractor of Council.

We are collectively proud of our wonderful Scenic Rim community: a community of hardworking people who are supportive and respectful. It is unfortunate that a very small minority of our residents believe that it is acceptable to treat others with disrespect.

Abuse or threatening behaviour towards Council staff, both within the workplace or within the community, is not acceptable. Any situation where abuse is directed at, or impacts, a Council employee or contractor while undertaking their duties, is taken very seriously. This includes abuse in the following circumstances:

- Face-to-face interactions (across all of Council's services, delivered out in the community or in Council's facilities)
- Telephone interactions
- Written correspondences such as letters, emails and online submissions
- Council's social media platforms, including comments on posts and direct messages

Matters may be referred to the Queensland Police Service (QPS), if necessary.

We all have our jobs to do. Let's work together with respect to maintain the values of our spectacular region.

THE LISTER ENGINE (CHUFF, CHUFF, CHUFF)

Sir Robert Ashton Lister founded Lister Co. producing machines powered by a drive belt to external sources like steam, horse or water power. In the early 1890s he began to produce portable petrol-powered machinery for farm use. The slow-running engines soon gained a reputation for reliability and longevity.

On Heritage open days and other special events, sparks from the foundry as the metal is tortured and twisted, and by watching butter being made, add color to the static displays. Sometimes a gentle background noise might be appropriate. The tractors could not be left running for the duration of an Open Day. What was needed was a small reliable engine that would add some acoustics to the day.

The society advertised for a petrol motor as a donation. No response!

Years later, out of the blue, Ken Leiber from Byron Bay offered as a donation a 1943 Lister Model 104L in 'sort of' running order. Perfect!

Under the watchful eye of volunteer Tony Shorter, taking it up to exhibition standard while ensuring it still ran, was carried out.

Visitors can look forward to the rhythmic, slow tick over, more like a 'chuff, chuff, chuff' sound of this motor. In a world of awash with complex electronic gadgetry, there is something highly reassuring about the simple machines of our past.

Visit the Heritage Center at Wongawallan Rd any Sunday from 11:00 AM until 3:00 PM and see the Lister and many other interesting exhibits.

Experienced guides will assist you in finding your way around the center.

IT'S A LOTTERY... TIME TO STAND UP

After my elderly neighbour died, some developers bought his quaint 1950s cottage at 735 Main Western Road, Mt Tamborine under the pretence of making it their family home.

However, they promptly demolished 95% of it and constructed a huge ugly monstrosity, without council approval.

The ground floor comprises a large reception room complete with a prominent bar area which can be seen from the street.

They later tried to get permission from the SRRRC to create this huge commercial operation, which included a massive spa bath house (the onsens), an enormous car park and numerous cabins, all to be built on a known land slip area in a residential zone. Come and see it.

The SRRRC rightly denied their hideous proposal, stating that it would not comply with the SRRRC Planning Scheme and would contradict community expectations of privacy and natural environment. In other words, this outrageous proposal had no merit. When the developer appealed against the SRRRC ruling, a vote of councillors was required.

The SRRRC inexplicably reversed its original decision and voted 4/2 to allow this invasive and horrible development to proceed unchanged.

The SRRRC broke their own rules to favour a greedy developer over residential ratepayers and citizens of Tamborine Mountain. Why?

We should be "up in arms" over this dereliction of council duty and responsibility.

My quiet, peaceful rural environment will now be forever ruined by a callous developer. My neighbouring property will fall in value and I will face constant crowds, lights, and the noise of industry, potentially from 9.00am to 8.00pm.

Do not think this is an isolated situation and won't happen to you, in your "safe" area. None of us is safe from this belligerent council. I am now compelled to attend court on 7th September to defend my rights against the developer and possibly pay legal costs for having my living dreams shattered.

Please help me by supporting the Tamborine Mountain Progress Association (TMPA) in fighting against this ridiculous development. Oppose this development by writing to council, state government and media outlets. Help fund TMPA in this legal battle over this and other in appropriate developments.

The SRRRC has abandoned Tamborine Mountain ratepayers, where we pay more and get less than ratepayers in Boonah and Beaudesert.

Please help me oppose this life-changing proposal supported by an inept council where the weak are isolated and picked off in preference to rich developers.

Remember, united we win, isolated we fall.

If this can happen to me in my quiet residential zone, it can also happen to you.

TRAVELLING PLACES with Gina

French small ship cruising and expedition specialist Ponant have taken their original sailing ship and reinvented her. Now a luxury yacht in the true sense of the word, this elegant vessel will be coming to Australia in 2023. Every passenger will feel pampered; with no more than 32 travellers, these exclusive adventures inspire and entice a lucky few. There are two regions to explore, The Kimberley and the islands to Australia's North. The details for these northern island explorations will be available shortly.

You will begin or end your Kimberley journey with the unique transfer on Paspaley's flying boat the Grumman Mallard. Choose from a wonderful Southern-bound to Broome, a North-bound itinerary to Darwin or the round trip to Rawley Shores. Each journey is 9 or 10 nights long.

Alongside Le Ponant, this expedition company will be bringing a number of other small ships to Australia – these have a maximum of 200 passengers. The benefit of vessels this size is that you experience the destination in a unique way: you access less visited areas of the world and linger longer in your destinations.

Ponant have ships that are sailing in all regions of the world. Sail around the less-visited islands of the Mediterranean; experience the polar regions with an expedition to The Arctic, the Northwest Passage or Antarctica; explore the coastal regions of Central and South America; cross vast oceans calling into remote islands we only dream about; circumnavigate Tasmania or venture to the sub-Antarctic islands south of New Zealand.

The expeditions are all inclusive, shore excursions and everything on board. With a touch of French flair, you are sure to enjoy the experience. The earlier you book with Ponant the better the deal, when they release their new itineraries, they offer a 30% early booking discount, as the sailing draws closer and the ship starts to fill the price only increases. A good reason to commit early and secure the cabin of your dreams.

Join us to find out more about these lovely ships, especially the very delightful, newly launched Le Ponant and the wonderful Worldwide cruises that Ponant offer.

A YOGA SPRING PRACTICE

Spring is always announced with great fanfare on my property in Boyland. I have a pair of peregrine falcons who arrive at the start of Spring to reclaim their straggly nest, much to the dismay and anger of the local birds and the local chooks. Gorgeous, aloof, disinterested in anything but their own cyclical drive to nest and reproduce, I am always delighted to hear of their arrival. And to add to the excitement of the season, a young koala at the Daisy Hill Mountain Biking circuit, climbed down one of the trees and gravely observed the humans who were speeding past. Very special.

When you spend a lot of time outdoors observing things like weather patterns, wind direction, plant growth and seasonal birdsong, you start to tune into the cycles of life. And when you collate these many little pieces into a bigger picture over a season, a year and a decade, you can learn so much about how the natural world around us copes with change. As living, breathing creatures of nature, we are no less connected to the seasons than the flowering gums and the migrating birds. It just takes slowing and listening to notice the subtleties and tuning into the changing energy around us.

In the world of yoga and Ayurveda, Spring is the season of detoxing, lightening the load, decluttering and cleaning up from the legacy of Winter. We don't just focus on our external environment and our bodies; we also consider our internal worlds. Paying attention to any heavy emotions in the heart and deciding on how to learn from them or release them.

Our yoga practice tunes into this rising energy of change around us and we consider the balance of Yin (feminine, Ida energy) and Yang (masculine, Pingala energy) in our bodies. In this instance the Yang is keeping you strong, that bamboo strength in the body. And the Yin is giving you that suppleness and pliability of the bamboo nature, internally. As you observe these two different qualities you realise that strength and flexibility are really the same thing. If you are imbalanced in the Yang: strong, rigid, stiff and resistant to change, metaphorically, you'll snap when life gets challenging and as those Springtime winds blow. If you are imbalanced in the Yin: flexible but with no core strength and perhaps internally, indecisive, susceptible to others' opinions with no strong convictions of your own, you'll fold into anxiety and stress under the challenges of life and in the season of change. So, our yoga practice physically focusses on the harmony and the balance between staying strong and yet supple and emotionally finding our internal moral codes without becoming rigid, judgemental and small minded.

Spring then becomes our seasonal opportunity to detox, organise, balance and transform.

Relationships

THE IMPORTANCE OF DADS

Steve Biddulph, author of many books on parenting and relationships, tells a poignant story that occurred as he sat by his dying dad's bedside. His dad related an incident that happened when Steve was only a few days old. He placed Steve in a pram and proudly walked him down the main street of the small town in which they lived. He noticed that passersby were staring at him and frowning. Then some children followed behind him began making fun of him, calling out "Your dad's your mum!" At this point Steve's shy dad abandoned the walk and took a short cut home. His dad began to cry, and Steve realised that he was conveying to him that he had tried to be a hands-on dad. However, in the 1950's this was not seen as a man's role and was actively discouraged.

Thankfully, the role of fathers has evolved since the 1950s and parenting is now a shared responsibility. Despite this, in a recent survey of more than 1,000 families, two-thirds of dads desired to be more involved in the early years of parenting. They felt relieved when they had opportunity to help in a 'hands-on' way. The desire of dads to be more involved in caregiving is explained by recent interesting studies. Evidently, when a new baby arrives, the father's hormones change. Dads become more placid and less competitive. They switch into caring mode, and feel happier being close to their children.

Mums can sometimes experience ambiguity in sharing parenting, particularly when their partner approaches parenting differently. The most successful co-parenting couples tend to be the ones where mum allows dad to specialise and have a unique connection with their kids rather than duplicating the same experiences. At times children will need security and will seek their primary caregiver. Other times they are seeking adventure or play and will look to the other parent. Newcastle University researched rough and tumble play with dads and kids. They found that through this activity kids learn what it means to be safe and moderate their emotions through the combined experience of excitement and safety. Once parents understand and accept that the best thing for their child is a balance of delineated but not defined roles, they tend to do well.

Other research on the role of fathers suggests that the influence of father love on children's development is as great as the influence of mother love. Dads help children develop a sense of their place in the world, which helps their social, emotional and cognitive development and functioning. It can be as simple as attending your child's sports, walking the dog together or sitting down and catching up with what has happened in your child's day. These activities convey to your children that they are important, interesting and worthwhile.

To all our dads, have an awesome Father's Day celebrating who you are and the unique and valuable contribution you make to your children's lives.

Physio Talk

MYTHBUSTING...

It was so great to have Neil back in the writer's room for his edition of Physiotalk a few weeks back when he was talking about his ski trip (if you haven't read it, it's worth tracking down on the Scenic News website). Neil's telling anyone who'll listen about the (supposedly) glowing feedback he's receiving daily about this literary masterpiece.

Reading Neil's article got me thinking about how sometimes the old trusty, reliable things we know and love can do the job better than any new, fantastical things that catch our eye. Have you ever worn a pair of shoes to within an inch of its life, got a new pair and then realised that the old pair is still better? Yeah, that feeling.

So, what does this have to do with physio, you ask? Well, like many fields of healthcare, we are constantly bombarded with ever-changing research, differing "expert" opinions and a new device that promises to fix every known ailment every other day. It's a massive challenge that we face every day to sift through all of this information, work out what does and doesn't work, and treat our clients to the best of our ability. And guess what? 9 times out of 10 it's the old, trusty techniques we've been using for decades now that do the trick.

I thought I would bust some physiotherapy myths to set the record straight.

1. "I saw a pill on the news that said it would cure my arthritis!" – While this would be amazing and life changing for many, many people, it's not likely to occur anytime soon. Arthritis is an extremely complex degenerative condition that affects people in a multitude of ways. While medications can help relieve pain (speak to your GP about what may help), the treatments with the most evidence are regular exercise, good diet and regular physiotherapy.
2. "I don't need physio, I need surgery" – Physiotherapy and surgery go hand in hand like bread and butter. In many cases, a good physio-led rehabilitation program can help prevent surgery. Sometimes, surgery is still required and that's okay – physiotherapy before surgery almost always leads to enhanced post-operative outcomes. Physiotherapy after surgery does the same!

with HAYDEN BUCKMAN

3. Physiotherapy is just massage – Nope. This is something that really grinds my gears. While most physiotherapists will use massage as part of a treatment package, we will use joint mobilisation, taping, bracing, dry needling, education and exercise to manage your condition. Physiotherapy is such a wide and varied profession, and we have a crazy amount to offer – not just massage!
4. Physiotherapy is just for adults/young people/active people/old people – There is a very good reason that we go through various subjects at uni teaching us about the entire lifespan of humans. Physios are adept at treating everyone! Physique especially has an incredibly wide range of expertise from paediatric to geriatric physiotherapy, sports, women's health, men's health, lymphoedema, dizziness, chronic pain, headaches, tendons etc. etc. etc. The list goes on!!

While every single day we are learning more and more about the human body – it's important to not overlook the tried-and-true methods of treatment to help out. Not sure what should be done about your health? Give us a call, and let the experts help!

DONATIONS FOLLOW ROTARY CAR SHOW SUCCESS

This year's Tamboorine Mountain Rotary Car Show at the Tamboorine Mountain Sports Ground was a success with a large showing of vintage, antique, classic, custom, muscle, and sports cars as well as bikes. Large crowds attended on the day thanks to great weather conditions. Families from all areas attended and enjoyed the show vehicles, music, market stalls and food vans. The off-street parking within the grounds was co-ordinated by members of our local Scenic Rim Regional Cadet unit.

Rotary is directing all the funds raised from this event directly back into our community, supporting schools and youth development, sports clubs, and other community groups. The first round of donations being given were: a donation of $1500 to the local Scenic Rim Regional Cadets, $1000 to the Tamboorine Mountain Men's Shed and $500 to the Men's Shed band Offcuts who supplied live music during the day. Rotary also donated $3000 to the Tamboorine Mountain Sports Association: another local not-for-profit organisation that has to manage our local sports grounds for a number of sports with little outside support.

The next wave of donations will include donations to the Police and Blue Light Disco, all the schools on Tamboorine Mountain, including funds for youth development and other Rotary Projects on Tamboorine Mountain this financial year.

This event was sponsored by Eagle Heights Hotel (major sponsor) and as well as sponsors Tamboorine Mountain Auto Clinic, Carlo's IGA, Scenic Rim Council and Skywalk.

Thanks to these sponsors, we handed out prize monies in different categories totalling over $2500. Rotary, with the help of several other community volunteers, made the day a success.

HOWARD CREEK WORKS ENTER NEW PHASE

Construction is progressing on the Howard Creek Causeway upgrade on Tamborine-Oxenford Road. The upgrade aims to provide a safer road alignment, with increased flood immunity. Visible below is the upgrade of the existing pipe culverts to a multiple cell

Transport to attend medical appointments is available Monday – Friday, fees are variable depending on destination. We rely on the generosity of volunteers for their time and use of their own vehicles to deliver this service.

Additionally, once a month we run a bus service to Oxenford so that clients can spend time at Bunnings, Kmart and Aldi for a different shopping experience to that which is offered at the shopping malls visited on Tuesdays.

To access any of these services, you must be over the age of 65 and assessed as eligible through My Aged Care who can be contacted on 1800 200 422. Alternatively, we can make a referral on your behalf as can your GP.

As we age, our ability to drive may deteriorate due to a number of reasons. We may suffer from anxiety due to busy road conditions or have a medical issue that prevents us from driving on a temporary basis e.g., following surgery, or on a permanent basis due to vision problems, dementia, or sleep disorder, to name a few.

Tamborine Mountain Community Care can assist with transport needs, the cost of which is subsidised through the Commonwealth Home Support Program.

Transport options include bus transport, both locally and to the Gold Coast, for shopping trips or individual transport in a car to enable access to medical appointments, both locally and to more distant destinations, including the Gold Coast and Brisbane.

Bus transport operates every Tuesday to Gold Coast Shopping Centres on a three-weekly rotation to Helensvale, Burleigh and Runaway Bay. Pick up is from your front door, and you will have approximately 3 hours shopping time at your destination before the return trip.

A shuttle bus service is offered every Thursday. Pick up is from your home and the destination is the North Tamborine business centre so that clients can access the Post Office, Library, Council Offices etc. The service also visits the chemist, and the IGA shopping complex. The attending clients also have lunch at a local café which they may not be able to access at any other time, this provides local businesses with much needed custom and

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

MY SAN CHOY BOW

This sublimely swift recipe with silky soft pork, crunchy water chestnuts, caramelised garlic and a hint of chilli all wrapped up in lettuce is a surefire hit for anyone who enjoys South East Asian cuisine. And you guessed it, it's my Luck Dragon secret sauce that brings all the flavours together.

These little parcels of happiness are perfect for a build-your-own interactive dinner experience, because you can arrange the lettuce, pork and extra sauce in the middle of the table and let everyone dive in. You can easily make it vegetarian too, by using chopped hard tofu, and I would devour a meatless version of this just as enthusiastically as I would a typical pork version. Water chestnuts are a must for this dish, with their incredibly unique texture; they can easily be found tinned in the Asian section of the supermarket.

Did you know? Water chestnuts are super popular in Asian cuisine, but they are not, as their name implies, literally nuts, nor are they legumes: they are actually aquatic tubers, similar to potatoes. They can qualify as a superfood because they are high in potassium, manganese, copper, fibre, riboflavin, vitamin B6, and copper. They also contain a good dose of vitamin C, calcium, iron, and phosphorus. They even have lots of antioxidants, particularly ferulic acid, which has the wonderful effect of keeping foods crisp and crunchy even after being heated.

Chef Dylan tip: When you are frying off the pork make sure the fry pan is nice and hot, with enough oil to ensure the mince sizzles. I like to use a cast iron skillet or even better, a wok, as these tend to retain the heat better. When adding the pork to the pan, do so in small chunks, and let it brown up nicely before stirring.

Memory Lane. Chatswood Sydney 1997

"You boys hungry? Fancy an early dinner?", asks my best friend's father from the driver's seat of his 4x4 Pajero, as we head to his home in the Northern suburbs for the weekend. "Does a one-legged duck swim in a circle?" replies Chris, smiling from the front seat. "Always the comedian, ya smart Alec", he says while shaking his head from side to side. "What about you Dylan?". "Sure, Mr Darling, I could definitely eat." "Dave is fine mate. You like Chinese? Because I know an excellent restaurant only 10 minutes away." "China Chilli in the mall?" Chris pipes up. "Yes, Chris, you got it, we've been going there for years." "Can we get the banquet pleeeeeease?" pleads Chris. "Alright, alright, let's have a feast then; you two are growing young men after all." "Thanks Dad! This is going to be epic! I'm starving" says Chris, excitedly rubbing his hands together.

We park up, and Dave holds the large wooden door open and gestures for us to enter the dimly lit restaurant. The place is empty at 4pm, except for an elderly Chinese man slurping on a steaming bowl of noodles, sat alone in the far corner. "That's the owner's father, he's always here, and look, here comes his mother. 'Hello Mrs. Chan'" says Dave respectfully, as a small Chinese woman shuffles to greet us with a smile missing a few teeth. "Mr Darling, how r-ovely to see you again so soon. Pr-ease take a seat". I pull out the heavy metal chair padded with bright red plush fabric and take a seat.

"Can we please order a banquet for 3 people Mrs. Chan" says Dave politely. "Any drinks?" Says Mrs Chan. "I'll have the usual. A small bottle of Tsingtao. And you boys want a couple of Cokes?" "Yeah Ok. Great" we both say, nodding. "No pl-oblem" says Mrs. Chan "I'll let Nick know you are here. I'm sure he will want to come say hi" as she retreats to the kitchen. A few moments later, a burly man in a pristine chef uniform appears. "Mr Darling, Sir so lovely to see you" he says in a perfect Aussie accent whilst enthusiastically shaking his hand. "And you have brought your son, and is this a friend from school today?". "Sure is. Dylan wants to be chef someday" adds Dave. "Good choice man! Welcome to China, Chilli Dylan" says Nick warmly, with both his thumbs up. "I hope you are hungry because you are about to see why Dave keeps coming back all these years" he says laughing, while patting his apron wrapped around his large well-rounded belly. "First course today is San Choy Bow. I can't wait to hear what you think Dylan, this is my Dad's family recipe. And after the meal, I can give you a tour of the kitchen if you like."

Memories spent together with good food in good company are some of my happiest, and I was fortunate for my mate Chris to invite me along to share time with his Dad, and for the Chan family's warm welcome, delicious banquet and hospitality.

LIONS' PROGRAM TO SAVE SIGHT

Every month, Lions Club member Gloria McKenzie collects several dozen pairs of discarded spectacles from various sites around the Mountain. The Leos Club (junior Lions) at the Tamborine Mountain College currently do likewise. Part of an Australia-wide Lions program, the glasses go to a warehouse in Brisbane, where they are checked by experts, appropriately labelled, and distributed to developing countries. Not only is it an important health initiative, it's global recycling in action.

One billion people worldwide currently live with a vision impairment. 'Vision' forms one of the Lions Club's International five key 'global causes' (the others are diabetes, hunger, environment and childhood cancer). It was Helen Keller, the author and disability rights advocate, who in 1925 urged US Lions Clubs to join her in a 'crusade against darkness', planting a seed that has yielded a rich harvest worldwide, including Tamborine Mountain.

Both nationally and internationally, Lions awards grants for vision-related programs and research. At the local level, the Lions Club of Tamborine Mountain, via its Saturday raffles and Steak Wagon, and parking at the country markets, donates to the national Lions Eye Health Program, which educates the community about avoidable vision loss.

Sometimes there's a local in need. Recently, the TM Club banded with other clubs to buy a Braille tablet computer for a man in his twenties with vision impairment. A software test analyst, he uses his new computer for technical purposes, plus the usual administrative issues like checking emails, notetaking, using Dropbox etc. In his leisure time, he can access Facebook, music apps and much more.

The local can connect with the global. The TM Lions Club in 2019 supported local optometrist Nicky Carr, practice owner of Tamborine Mountain Optometrists, to join the 10-day Trek for Sight fundraising challenge in Sri Lanka. (The practice supports a Vision Centre in that country.) The Club has also supported Nicky's team to run free glaucoma testing. With the rise of diabetes and age-related vision impairment, local health promotion is vital.

So, take your old glasses to the Eagle Heights Pharmacy, or TM Optometrists, and you'll be doing someone a big favour! This is a practical, 'service in action' initiative that is the lifeblood of Lions. And – by the way – have an eye test!

RAFAEL KARLEN QUINTET SET TO EXCITE

Tamborine Mountain is the second stop of an Australian National tour for the Rafael Karlen Quintet. So, save the date: Saturday 3rd September 7.30 pm in The Backroom @ North Stores 46 Main Street North Tamborine.

Rafael Karlen is an Aria-nominated composer, saxophonist, and arranger now based in Sydney who grew up and went to school on Tamborine Mountain. He has built a reputation as one of the most creative, exciting and surprising musicians on the Australian music scene. His music has been performed by small jazz groups, rock and pop ensembles, big bands through to chamber orchestras, choirs and string quartets. He has performed throughout Australia and New Zealand and in Canada, Cambodia, England, Scotland and Sweden.

The tour celebrates the impending release of his new album Equally True with performances around the country at clubs and festivals including the Wangaratta Jazz Festival.

For the tour, the quintet and all-star ensemble comes together including renowned vocalist Jo Lawry – now living in New York – who has recorded with Sting, Peter Gabriel and Paul Simon, Rafael Karlen on saxophone, Matt McMahon pianist, composer and musical director for Vince Jones, Brett Hirst – acoustic bass and James Waples on drums.

The lyricism and understated but emotive mood of the album 'Equally True' showcases the distinctive personalities and sensitive playing of these exceptional musicians.

Tickets are available at the door but avoid disappointment and book ahead through eventbrite (QR code at right).

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT BOOKISH THINGS

BOOKS ACTUALLY DO HAVE A "SMELL" WHICH BECOMES MORE POTENT AS THEY AGE

Ever wondered about the book smell we love so much? Well, it's caused by a breakdown of two of the chemical components of paper – lignin and cellulose. The by-products of this process create a mixture of almond, vanilla, floral, and general sweet scents.

TRUMAN CAPOTE WAS REALLY SUPERSTITIOUS.

He wouldn't start or finish a book on a Friday, allow more than 3 cigarette butts in an ash tray, stay in hotel rooms with unlucky numbers, call phone numbers that added up to unlucky numbers, or fly on a plane with more than two nuns on board. He always needed to write lying down and frequently carried a security blanket with him. However, some of these things might be due to the fact that he suffered from obsessive compulsive disorder.

Staff Book Choice: The Spy's Wife by Fiona McIntosh

The highly anticipated new historical adventure from the bestselling author of The Champagne War. Evie, a widow and stationmaster's daughter, helplessly looks out for the weekly visit of the handsome man she and her sister call The Southerner on their train platform in the wilds of northern England. When polite salutations shift to friendly conversations, they become captivated by each other's reticent manner. After so much sorrow, the childless Evie can't believe love and the chance for her own family has come into her life again.

With rumours coming out of Germany that Hitler may be stirring up war again, local English authorities have warned against spies. Even Evie becomes suspicious of her new suitor, Roger. But all is not what it seems. When Roger is arrested, Evie comes up with an audacious plan to prove his innocence that means moving to Germany and working as a British counter-spy. Wearing the disguise of dutiful, naïve wife, Evie must charm the Nazi Party's dangerous officials to bring home hard evidence of war mongering on the Führer's part. But in this game of cat and mouse, it seems everyone has an ulterior motive, and Evie finds it impossible to know who to trust. With lives on the line, ultimate sacrifices will be made as she wrestles between her patriotism and saving the man she loves.

From the windswept moors of the Yorkshire dales to the noisy beer halls of Munich and grand country estates in the picture-book Bavarian mountains, this is a lively and high-stakes thriller that will keep you second-guessing until the very end. Genre: Historical Fiction, Romance novel, War story, Spy fiction
